- 1230/12 Radio Call: 7018 Hollywood: Chamber of Commerce: RP 45 stated character of Samuel L Jackson in "Pulp Fiction" was displaying a fake gun out in public scaring pedestrians. At the location I met with Anna a manager at the Chamber of Commerce, who stated that she called "911" but the police did not arrive. That was approximately 30 minutes ago. I advised her that it was the nature of the call that are prioritized. I further advised her that I did not see the character at this time but I will attempt to locate the character regarding his prop (toy gun?) and advise of the possible conflict with pedestrians and law enforcement.

- 1515/15 Radio Call: 6620 Hollywood: RP Complaint of loud music 30 coming from a pedestrian in front of the business. As I spoke with the violator he became 415 and began shouting obscenities at me and refused to lower the radio. Unable to cite due to the nature of the violation, I advised RP to call LAPD. RP was explained in length why we could not enforce this violation, he was receptive to the explanation and understood. Further, as I was leaving I told the violator that LAPD was coming and I hope he did not have a warrant for his arrest. Within few minutes violator left the location without
